March 28-29, 2019

Founded in 1778, historic Abingdon, Virginia is among the oldest towns west of the Blue Ridge Mountains. With buildings dating back to the 18th century, Abingdon features a twenty block historic district on the National Register of Historic Places and is home to Barter Theatre, the State Theatre of Virginia, featuring Gregory Peck and Ernest Borgnine among its many famous alumni.

Lexington, Virginia is unique for its large number of well-preserved homes, colleges, churches, and other early buildings, many still in use today. It is also the final resting place of confederate generals Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson.

This trip includes an evening show at the Barter Theatre, accommodations at the elegant Martha Washington Inn, and riding tours of both Abingdon and Lexington, making this one spring tour you don't want to miss!

Thursday, March 28

Travel along I-81 south with the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains as your back drop. Lunch is at the popular Log Cabin Restaurant with an early afternoon arrival at the Martha Washington Inn. The Inn was originally built in 1832 as a private mansion and was used during the Civil War to provide shelter for wounded soldiers. Its lush perennial gardens create a popular wedding venue. Enjoy a buffet dinner in the dining room, followed by an evening production of Camelot at the Barter Theatre. Camelot tells the beloved tale of King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. With a legendary, romantic score (If Ever I Would Leave You, I Loved You Once in Silence), Camelot has won the hearts of generations of musical theatre lovers.

Friday, March 29

Begin with a breakfast buffet at the Inn and then depart for guided riding tours of Abingdon and Lexington. Stops in Abingdon include the Muster Grounds, a historic trailhead of the Revolutionary war; the popular Olive Oil Company, where you can enjoy taste-testing; and Heartwood, the gateway to Southwest Virginia craft, music, food and culture. There will be time for shopping and getting a sandwich to go before traveling on to Lexington. Stops in Lexington begin with Lee Chapel, a National Historic Landmark, which houses the Robert E. Lee family crypt and a state-of-the-art museum. The tour concludes at Stonewall Jackson Memorial Cemetery where general Stonewall Jackson, his family members, many confederate soldiers, and two Virginia governors are interred.
